New Delhi, the 31st December 1965

S.R.O. 11.—The following bye-laws made by the Cantonment Board, Nasirabad in exercise of powers conferred by clause (14) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924) for the regulation and control of eating houses within the Nasirabad Cantonment, is hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of Section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION AND CONTROL OF EATING HOUSES WITHIN THE NASIRABAD CANTONMENT.

1. In these bye-laws eating house means a building or shop which is used for selling cooked articles of food and where accommodation is also provided for a person or persons visiting the place for partaking of food and includes a nanbai's rotiwala's and tandoorwala's shop, dhaba and kabab-wala's shop.

2. No person shall establish an eating house or cause an eating house to be established within 31 metres of any cow-shed, stable, public latrine or public dust bin.

3. (i) The floor of all eating houses shall be of impervious material and be so laid as to drain in one direction and the drain shall be connected to a soakage pit or a public drain.

(ii) The premises of the eating house shall be properly fly-proofed.

4. The place used for cooking (cook-room) shall have a cemented floor, a fire place, a proper chimney for the escape of smoke and shall also have provision for adequate ventilation.

5. The fire place that is to say, bhatti or chullah of the eating house shall be placed inside the eating house at least 2 metres away from the road. No fire place shall be allowed on the edge of the road or over a drain.

6. A proper washing place for the cleaning of utensils used in the preparation and service of food, shall be provided and adequate arrangements for the disposal of water shall be made. All utensils after being washed shall be rinsed in a solution of potassium permanganate which shall be kept ready for use in a basin or earthen hand.

7. All copper and brass utensils shall be tinned once a month.

8. Clean and sanitary storage arrangements shall be made for drinking water, meat, fish, milk and other articles of food.

9. All appliances (including furniture) used in the eating house shall be kept clean.

10. The entire premises of the eating house shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition and in good repair.

11. Metal bins with covers shall be kept for the storage of waste food and sweeping of the premises.

12. The persons in charge of eating house shall comply with all instructions and restrictions as are issued from time to time by the Health Officer and the Executive Officer of the Nasirabad Cantonment in respect of—

(a) the preparation of any food;

(b) disinfecting utensils used in the preparation and sale of all articles of food;

(c) any other measures considered necessary by the medical and health authorities to prevent the spread of disease.

13. All food handlers shall be given small pox vaccination and Typhoid Anti Bacillus inoculation from time to time at the direction of the Medical Officer or Assistant Health Officer, Nasirabad Cantonment. The food handlers shall also be required to undergo medical examination every month.

14. It shall be the duty of the licensee of the premises of the eating house to inform immediately to the Executive Officer or the Health Officer of any case of infectious disease occurring in the eating house at any time.

15. Earthenware gharas, matkas, nands or any other utensils used for the storage of water for drinking or any other purpose shall be emptied and refilled at least every 24 hours. They shall be replaced whenever they are declared by the Executive Officer or the Health Officer to have become unfit for the aforesaid purposes.

16. Contravention of these bye-laws, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to one rupee for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first of such contravention.
